Richard Lippert was testing the Google Meet function. All were successfully going online with both visual and audio communications. No recording capabilities were available.

3rd Saturday of the month was to be used for Votaw/Thompson Rd. Due to heat, the use of 311 would be maximized.

Apopka/Wekiwa High would be tapped for help in October

It was confirmed that no Art Project Committee had been formed but had not yet been met.

Google Docs would become the permanent archive for POWS.

Request was made by Christine Moore for help in the August bike event.

October 19th will be a clean-up event.

The 3rd Saturday of October (26th) was scheduled for "Trunk and Treat" at Votaw Park. Time 4 to 6 pm.

A request was made to pay for a speaker to attend a District 2 meeting. The decision was made to decline to pay.

Discussed an Art Project that could use cutouts of bears or wildlife birds. Have members paint them and use these on area fences.

The meeting closed at about 8:30 pm.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Bob". The letters are stylized and cursive.

Bob Samson, Secretary
